A Busy Morning Downtown (A2 · English A2)

Tekst / Transcript

Mia: Good morning, Ben. You look tired today.

Ben: Yes, my morning was very strange. I walked to work at eight.

Mia: Was the street busy?

Ben: It was so crowded. Cars stopped everywhere and people pushed me.

Mia: I hate that. What happened next?

Ben: I turned at the corner near the bank. A big crowd stood in front of the door.

Mia: Why? Was there a problem?

Ben: Yes. The police said there was a small crime in the bank.

Mia: Oh no. Did they catch the man?

Ben: They did. The criminal ran to the park, but he was slow.

Mia: That is good news. Were you late for work?

Ben: A little. I ran to my office building after that.

Mia: Did you take the stairs?

Ben: No, I took the elevator to the fifth floor. It was full of people.

Mia: My building has stairs only. I walk every day.

Ben: You are lucky. My bag fell on the ground in the hall.

Mia: Did your computer break?

Ben: No, it is fine. But now the office gate is closed, so I sit here with you.

Mia: Then drink your coffee. Today can still be a good day.
