The Missing Bicycle (A2 · English A2)

Tekst / Transcript

Sara: Hi, Tom. Why are you at the police station?

Tom: Somebody took my bicycle last night. I am very angry.

Sara: That is terrible. Where did you leave it?

Tom: In front of my house. It was not locked.

Sara: Oh, Tom. A thief can work very fast.

Tom: I know that now. I talked to a police officer for ten minutes.

Sara: Was he friendly?

Tom: Yes, he was kind. He wrote my name and my address.

Sara: Will they look for your bike?

Tom: A detective came too. He asked about my neighbours and my street.

Sara: Do you need help with papers?

Tom: Maybe. My sister is a lawyer, so she can read them.

Sara: That is very useful. Was the man dangerous?

Tom: No, he had no gun. He only took the bike and ran away.

Sara: People think small things are okay, but the law says no.

Tom: Exactly. You cannot steal a bike and stay free.

Sara: Will the man go to prison?

Tom: I don't know. Maybe he only pays money.

Sara: Well, buy a good lock this time.

Tom: Yes, and I will keep the bike inside my house.
