Before the Exams (A2 · English A2)

Tekst / Transcript

Anna: Hi Tom! You look very tired today.

Tom: Hi Anna. I went to bed late. I wrote an essay for my English class.

Anna: Oh, that is hard work. How long is it?

Tom: Three pages. My teacher wants it on Friday.

Anna: I have three tests this week. physics, chemistry and biology.

Tom: That is a lot. Do you like biology?

Anna: Yes, I love plants and animals. But I don't like math very much.

Tom: Really? Numbers are easy for me. I like mathematics more than words.

Anna: My brother is the same. He studies mathematics at university now.

Tom: Nice! Will he get his degree this year?

Anna: Yes, in June. My parents are very happy.

Tom: Where do you do your chemistry tests?

Anna: In the small lab near the library. It smells strange there.

Tom: I know that room. We break a glass there every week!

Anna: Please be careful. Our teacher gets angry.

Tom: I try. Do you want to study together tonight?

Anna: Yes, good idea. Learning is easier with a friend.

Tom: I agree. And a good education helps us later.

Anna: True. My father says knowledge is never too much.

Tom: Your father is right. See you at seven!
