Before the Interview (A2 · English A2)

Tekst / Transcript

Sara: Good morning, Luke. You look very nice today.

Luke: Thanks. I have a job interview at ten o'clock.

Sara: Where is the office?

Luke: It is in that grey building, on the third floor.

Sara: I know it. There is a small shop next to it.

Luke: Yes, I buy my coffee there sometimes.

Sara: Your tie is a little crooked. Let me help you.

Luke: Oh, thank you. I am nervous today.

Sara: Don't worry. You know the answers.

Luke: I hope so. I read everything except the last page.

Sara: That is enough. Can I give you a small tip?

Luke: Yes, please. I need help.

Sara: Speak slowly and smile at the people.

Luke: That is good advice. My voice gets thin when I am scared.

Sara: Then drink some water first. It really helps.

Luke: I will. What time is it now?

Sara: It is exactly half past nine.

Luke: Good. I have thirty minutes.

Sara: I had a thought this morning about your interview.

Luke: Really? Tell me.

Sara: I think you will get the job, especially because you work hard.

Luke: You are a good friend. See you tonight!

Try our 6-step method for free and make these words stick.

Listen to this episode online: https://course.interactivelessons.nl/local/podcast/episode.php?id=27008

Start this course for free: https://course.interactivelessons.nl/mod/quiz/view.php?id=1850