Camping by the Lake (A2 · English A2)

Tekst / Transcript

Tom: Anna, is this bag yours? It is very heavy.

Anna: Yes, sorry. I put two books and a big pot in it.

Tom: My bag is light, because I only have clothes.

Anna: Can you help me? I need support with this tent.

Tom: Of course. Hold this side and I will push the poles in.

Anna: Look, the lake is right there. This place is ideal for a camp.

Tom: I agree. The water is quiet and the trees are beautiful.

Anna: The ground here is nice and soft. We will sleep well.

Tom: Good, because my back hurts after a long walk.

Anna: Walking with a bag is hard physical work.

Tom: It is. But now I feel great.

Anna: The sun is going down. There is not much light now.

Tom: I have a lamp in my bag. I will get it.

Anna: Thank you. And it is extremely cold tonight.

Tom: Yes, take my blanket. You can cover your legs with it.

Anna: That is much better. Listen, what is that noise?

Tom: Maybe a wild animal, but small. Don't worry.

Anna: Okay. Let's make tea and sit by the fire.

Tom: Perfect plan. Tomorrow we can swim in the lake.
