The New Job (A2 · English A2)

Tekst / Transcript

Maria: Good morning, Peter. How was your interview?

Peter: It was good. I am tired now.

Maria: Who did you meet there?

Peter: I met the director of the whole company.

Maria: Wow. Was he friendly?

Peter: Yes, but his questions were very direct.

Maria: What did he ask you?

Peter: He asked about my background in computers.

Maria: You worked with computers for six years.

Peter: I told him that. He liked my answer.

Maria: Did you know the exact answer to everything?

Peter: No. One question was really hard.

Maria: What did you do then?

Peter: I did not avoid it. I said I don't know.

Maria: That was honest. Honest people get good jobs.

Peter: I hope so. The office is small and quiet.

Maria: Is it connected to the train station?

Peter: Yes, five minutes on foot. That is excellent.

Maria: And the money?

Peter: It is fine, but not extreme.

Maria: Money is not everything.

Peter: True. I want to be more independent at work.

Maria: So, will you take the job?

Peter: I must make my decision before Friday.

Maria: Take your time. Sleep is important too.

Peter: Yes, bad sleep can affect my thinking.

Maria: Then have a deep, long sleep tonight.

Peter: Good idea. Thank you, Maria.

Probeer onze 6-stappenmethode gratis om deze woorden echt te onthouden.

Luister deze aflevering online: https://course.interactivelessons.nl/local/podcast/episode.php?id=27151

Begin gratis met deze cursus: https://course.interactivelessons.nl/mod/quiz/view.php?id=1860