The New Neighbours (A2 · English A2)

Tekst / Transcript

Tom: Good morning, Sara. Did you meet the new neighbours?

Sara: Yes, I met them yesterday in the garden.

Tom: How do they look? I only saw a car.

Sara: The male neighbour is tall with curly hair.

Tom: And his wife? Is she tall too?

Sara: No, the female neighbour is short and very friendly.

Tom: That is nice. Are they young?

Sara: I think they are about forty years old.

Tom: What do they do? Do you know?

Sara: He works in a bank. He wears a grey suit every day.

Tom: Very serious! And her job?

Sara: She makes carpets with a beautiful pattern of flowers.

Tom: Really? I want to see one.

Sara: She gave me a small one. It has the shape of a heart.

Tom: That sounds lovely. Where do they put the car?

Sara: Not in the garage. The door is too narrow.

Tom: Yes, our street is also wide for two cars.

Sara: They park near the big circle in the park.

Tom: Good place. Is that clear for everyone?

Sara: Yes, the sign is easy to read.

Tom: One more thing. She wore nice silver earrings.

Sara: You are right. They were a gift from her mother.
