Shopping Before Dinner (A2 · English A2)

Tekst / Transcript

Mia: Hi Tom, are you free now? I need help.

Tom: Sure. What do you need?

Mia: I want to go to the grocery store. My fridge is empty.

Tom: Good idea. I can come with you. My car is outside.

Mia: Thank you. I want to cook something new tonight.

Tom: Do you have a plan? What do you want to make?

Mia: I have an old recipe from my mother. It is very simple.

Tom: That sounds nice. Tell me about it.

Mia: We need beans and rice, and also some meat.

Tom: Do you want chicken or beef? The meat here is fresh.

Mia: The red meat, please. My family likes it.

Tom: Okay. What about the tomato sauce for the rice?

Mia: I have one at home. But I need one lemon for the salad.

Tom: Here it is. It is big and yellow.

Mia: Perfect. I also want something sweet for the children.

Tom: Look, these are chocolate. One cookie costs one dollar.

Mia: I take four. And a small bag of candy for the little boy.

Tom: Sweet things are his favourite. What about breakfast?

Mia: Oh yes! I need strawberry jam for my bread.

Tom: And these brown nuts are good with yogurt.

Mia: Great. Now let's go home and cook.

Tom: I hope the food has a good taste.
