A Busy Evening (A2 · English A2)

Tekst / Transcript

Anna: Good evening, Ben. The restaurant is very full tonight.

Ben: Yes, I know. I counted twenty people at the tables.

Anna: That is a lot. Can you help me?

Ben: Of course. What must I do first?

Anna: Please serve the soup to table three. They are waiting.

Ben: Okay. The soup is hot and ready.

Anna: Then please collect the empty plates from table five.

Ben: No problem. I can do that after the soup.

Anna: Thank you. You are always fast.

Ben: What is that lovely smell in the kitchen?

Anna: It is the cake. It is our dessert tonight.

Ben: Chocolate cake is my favourite. Is it big?

Anna: Yes, very big. The chef made it this morning.

Ben: He works so hard every day.

Anna: He does. Look, he has a big smile on his face now.

Ben: He is happy because the guests like his food.

Anna: Wait, I see grey smoke near the window!

Ben: Don't worry. A man is outside with a cigarette.

Anna: But smoking is not allowed here. I will talk to him.

Ben: Good. Our garden is a quiet, clean place.

Anna: Yes, and the garden is the best feature of this restaurant.

Ben: I agree. Now let's go back to work.

Try our 6-step method for free and make these words stick.

Listen to this episode online: https://course.interactivelessons.nl/local/podcast/episode.php?id=27238

Start this course for free: https://course.interactivelessons.nl/mod/quiz/view.php?id=1866