Sunday by the River (A2 · English A2)

Tekst / Transcript

Tom: Good morning, Sara. Where are you going with that bag?

Sara: Good morning! I am going fishing. My father is waiting at the river.

Tom: Nice. Do you catch many things there?

Sara: Sometimes. Last Sunday I caught one big fish, and my father caught three.

Tom: I never try that. But I love nature very much.

Sara: Then come with us. We walk along the river for about one hour.

Tom: Is the water clean?

Sara: Yes, it is clean here. People here care about the environment.

Tom: That is good. In my city the water is grey and dirty.

Sara: You live downtown, right? Too many cars there.

Tom: Yes, and too much noise. I want to move to a small village.

Sara: Our place is small and quiet. There are only thirty houses.

Tom: And the hills are beautiful. The view from the bridge is amazing.

Sara: You must see the old stone temple too. It is very ancient.

Tom: How old is it?

Sara: My teacher says people built it in the fourth century.

Tom: Wow, that is really old. Why did they build it here?

Sara: They wanted a house for their river god. He was important for them.

Tom: What a story! Okay, I bring bread and water. Let us go.
