The New Bicycle (A2 · English A2)

Tekst / Transcript

Emma: Good morning, Sam. You look happy today.

Sam: I am happy. I have a new bicycle. It is my best birthday present.

Emma: That is nice. What colour is it?

Sam: It is blue and white. My father buys it in the small shop.

Emma: Which shop? I don't know it.

Sam: It stands between the bank and the post office.

Emma: Ah, now I know that shop. My mother goes there too.

Sam: The man in the shop is very kind. He explains everything clearly.

Emma: Can you ride the bicycle well?

Sam: Not yet. I ride badly badly on the first day.

Emma: Everybody starts like that. Don't worry.

Sam: Today I ride much better. I fall only one time.

Emma: Are you all right?

Sam: Yes, I am fine. My hands are a little dirty, but that is all right.

Emma: Where do you ride?

Sam: I ride in the park. I go there as a small child, very slow.

Emma: The park is a good place. There are no cars.

Sam: Yes, and almost my friends are there in the afternoon.

Emma: I want a bicycle too. I definitely want one!

Sam: Then come with me. We ride together tomorrow.

Emma: All right, I come at three o'clock.

Sam: Perfect. Bring some water and a hat.

Emma: Now I go back home. My mother waits for me.

Sam: See you tomorrow, Emma.

Try our 6-step method for free and make these words stick.

Listen to this episode online: https://course.interactivelessons.nl/local/podcast/episode.php?id=27296

Start this course for free: https://course.interactivelessons.nl/mod/quiz/view.php?id=1870