Where Are My Keys? (A2 · English A2)

Tekst / Transcript

Lucy: Tom, look at the table, please.

Tom: I see a book, a cup and a plate. Why?

Lucy: I have a problem. I don't find my keys.

Tom: Are they in your bag?

Lucy: No. I look everywhere in my bag.

Tom: Maybe they are inside your coat.

Lucy: My coat has two pockets. Both are empty.

Tom: May I look in the kitchen?

Lucy: Yes, please. Thank you very much.

Tom: The kitchen is mostly clean, so it is easy.

Lucy: I use the keys this morning. Then I make tea.

Tom: I don't see them here. They are not on the shelf either.

Lucy: The shelf is very high for me anyway.

Tom: Wait. I hear something small.

Lucy: What is it?

Tom: Your cat plays with something under the sofa.

Lucy: Oh no! Come here, come immediately!

Tom: I might see them now. Yes, they are your keys!

Lucy: My cat is nearly a thief. She takes everything.

Tom: Cats love small things. My cat is the same.

Lucy: Thank you, Tom. You are a good friend.

Tom: No problem. May we drink the tea now?

Lucy: Yes, and later we go to the park.

Tom: Good idea. The weather is nice today.

Try our 6-step method for free and make these words stick.

Listen to this episode online: https://course.interactivelessons.nl/local/podcast/episode.php?id=27297

Start this course for free: https://course.interactivelessons.nl/mod/quiz/view.php?id=1870