Coffee and Family News (A2 · English A2)

Tekst / Transcript

Lena: Hi Marco! It is so good to see you again.

Marco: Hi Lena! Sit down, I have coffee for you.

Lena: Thank you. How is your family?

Marco: They are fine. My sister has a new baby.

Lena: Oh, that is lovely news! When was the birth?

Marco: Last Monday. The baby is small and very quiet.

Lena: Is your sister happy with her husband?

Marco: Yes, they have a good relationship. They talk about everything.

Lena: That is nice. My brother and his wife are divorced now.

Marco: I am sorry. They had a lot of trouble last year.

Lena: Yes, and every day they had a big argument about money.

Marco: Money is difficult. Many people have this problem.

Lena: My brother lives with us now. He is not alone.

Marco: Good. Family is important. Children depend on their parents.

Lena: True. My little nephews are twin boys. They look the same!

Marco: I remember them. They always wear blue jackets.

Lena: Yes, and the jackets belong to their father!

Marco: That is funny. Do they go to school here?

Lena: Yes, the school is next to the old church.

Marco: I know that building. My mother sings there on Sunday.

Lena: My mother helps a charity for poor families.

Marco: Our community is really kind. People help each other here.

Lena: I agree with you. I like this town.

Marco: Sometimes we disagree about small things, but we stay friends.

Lena: That is life. More coffee, please!

Marco: Of course. And bring your brother next time.

Try our 6-step method for free and make these words stick.

Listen to this episode online: https://course.interactivelessons.nl/local/podcast/episode.php?id=27362

Start this course for free: https://course.interactivelessons.nl/mod/quiz/view.php?id=1874