A Village Wedding in May (A2 · English A2)

Tekst / Transcript

Sofia: Good morning, Adam! Are you busy today?

Adam: Good morning! Yes, a little. I need a suit.

Sofia: A suit? Why do you need a suit?

Adam: My cousin wants to marry his girlfriend in May.

Sofia: How nice! Where is the wedding?

Adam: In a small village near the mountains. My family is from there.

Sofia: That sounds beautiful. Is it a big party?

Adam: Very big. In our family this is an old tradition.

Sofia: Do people wear special clothes?

Adam: Yes, my aunts wear traditional dresses with red flowers.

Sofia: I love that. And the food?

Adam: Soup, bread, lamb and cake. Nobody leaves hungry!

Sofia: You are lucky. It is like a holiday for you.

Adam: True. I do not work for five days.

Sofia: Do the children come too?

Adam: Of course. Every kid dances in the garden.

Sofia: And your brother? He is fifteen now, right?

Adam: Yes, he is a teenage boy. He only wants his phone.

Sofia: Typical! Where do the guests sit?

Adam: The bride's family sits on the left side of the room.

Sofia: And you sit among your cousins, I think.

Adam: Yes, at a long table. We laugh all evening.

Sofia: Your family always welcomes new people warmly.

Adam: That is true. You can come with me!

Sofia: Really? But I have no nice jacket.

Adam: My sister can lend you a blue one.

Sofia: Perfect. Thank you, sir!

Adam: Ha! Please call me Adam.
