At the Health Centre (A2 · English A2)

Tekst / Transcript

Emma: Good morning. Is this the right room for me?

Luca: Good morning. Yes, this is the medical centre. Please sit here.

Emma: Thank you. I am the new patient from Green Street.

Luca: Welcome. I am Luca and I am the nurse today.

Emma: Nice to meet you. The waiting room is very quiet.

Luca: Yes, mornings are calm here. So, how do you feel?

Emma: My stomach hurts after breakfast every day.

Luca: I see. Do you eat a lot of coffee and bread?

Emma: Too much coffee, I think. Three cups before nine o'clock.

Luca: That is a lot. Water is better for you.

Emma: I know. I also feel a small problem in my neck.

Luca: Can you turn your head to the left, please?

Emma: Yes, but it is not easy. I work at a computer all day.

Luca: Many people have this problem. Short walks help.

Emma: I try that. Do you need my blood today?

Luca: Yes, only a little from your arm. It is quick.

Emma: Fine. I am not afraid of needles.

Luca: Very good. Your skin looks healthy and clean.

Emma: I use a cream every evening.

Luca: Nice. Your heart is strong and your body is fine.

Emma: That is good news. My father has problems there.

Luca: Then walk every day and eat more vegetables.

Emma: And what about my memory? Sometimes I forget names.

Luca: Your brain needs sleep. Eight hours, please.

Emma: Okay, doctor Luca! Thank you very much.

Try our 6-step method for free and make these words stick.

Listen to this episode online: https://course.interactivelessons.nl/local/podcast/episode.php?id=27396

Start this course for free: https://course.interactivelessons.nl/mod/quiz/view.php?id=1876