Before the Big Lecture (A2 · English A2)

Tekst / Transcript

Mia: Good morning, Sam. You look very nervous today.

Sam: Yes, I am. I have a big test this afternoon.

Mia: Don't worry about it. You study every day.

Sam: I know. But I feel a lot of stress before tests.

Mia: That is normal. Many students feel the same.

Sam: My professor asks very hard questions. Her name is Doctor Kim.

Mia: I sit in her lecture every Monday. She is kind.

Sam: Really? I suppose she is nice outside class too.

Mia: She is. She helps me with my reading list.

Sam: My mother is worried about my grades. She calls me every night.

Mia: Mothers are like that. My mother is the same.

Sam: I have no fear of the reading part. I like books.

Mia: Good. Who is your favourite author?

Sam: I like Jack London. His stories are simple and strong.

Mia: I read one book of his last year. It was short.

Sam: We can talk about books after the test.

Mia: Yes, let's do that. I finish class at four.

Sam: Perfect. I accept your plan with a big smile.

Mia: Then go now. Drink some water and breathe slowly.

Sam: Thank you, Mia. I feel better now.

Mia: Good luck! You know the answers.

Try our 6-step method for free and make these words stick.

Listen to this episode online: https://course.interactivelessons.nl/local/podcast/episode.php?id=27420

Start this course for free: https://course.interactivelessons.nl/mod/quiz/view.php?id=1878