A Busy Saturday (A2 · English A2)

Tekst / Transcript

Mia: Hello, Ben. What do you do today?

Ben: I work at home. Our roof is old and the rain comes in.

Mia: Oh no. Is the water in your bedroom?

Ben: Only a little. My brother helps me. We want to repair it this weekend.

Mia: That is hard work. Do you have a ladder?

Ben: Yes, we have one. It is very low , so my brother stands on a box too.

Mia: Please be careful up there. The wood is wet.

Ben: We are careful. First we remove the old tiles. Then we clean everything.

Mia: And after that?

Ben: We replace them with new red tiles. My mother chooses the colour.

Mia: Red is nice. Your house looks new then.

Ben: I hope so. What about you? Do you stay at home?

Mia: No, I go to the post office. I need a stamp for my letter.

Ben: Who gets the letter?

Mia: My grandmother in Spain. She does not use a computer.

Ben: That is sweet. She is very happy on Monday.

Mia: I think so too. The post office door is heavy. I always push it with two hands.

Ben: Yes, that door is terrible! Good luck, Mia.

Mia: Thank you, Ben. See you tomorrow.

Try our 6-step method for free and make these words stick.

Listen to this episode online: https://course.interactivelessons.nl/local/podcast/episode.php?id=27450

Start this course for free: https://course.interactivelessons.nl/mod/quiz/view.php?id=1880