A Busy Day at the Shop (A2 · English A2)

Tekst / Transcript

Maria: Hello, Ben. Why are you at the shop so early?

Ben: I work here now. I am the new clerk.

Maria: That is nice! Do you like the job?

Ben: Yes, but the mornings are very busy.

Maria: I need a small knife for my kitchen.

Ben: We have some good ones near the door.

Maria: Perfect. Can you show me?

Ben: Of course. Please follow me. I lead you to the shelf.

Maria: Thank you. These prices are fine.

Ben: This one is strong and it cuts bread well.

Maria: I take it. Do you also sell matches?

Ben: Yes, next to the cigarette boxes behind the counter.

Maria: I don't smoke, but my father does.

Ben: Many people ask me for them every morning.

Maria: Is your day always like this?

Ben: No. One man is very rude to me today.

Maria: Oh dear. What does he say?

Ben: He shouts because we have no milk.

Maria: That is not your fault.

Ben: I know, but I feel bad.

Maria: You can close the shop for five minutes and rest.

Ben: I can't. My boss comes at noon.

Maria: Then have some tea later.

Ben: I will. Where are my keys? I search my pockets again.

Maria: They are on the counter, next to the papers.

Ben: Thank you! I always lose them.

Maria: Now I go home and cook.

Ben: Have a good day. Please shut the door behind you.

Try our 6-step method for free and make these words stick.

Listen to this episode online: https://course.interactivelessons.nl/local/podcast/episode.php?id=27473

Start this course for free: https://course.interactivelessons.nl/mod/quiz/view.php?id=1882