Waiting for the Train (A2 · English A2)

Tekst / Transcript

Anna: Good morning, Tom. You are here early today.

Tom: Yes, I want the first train. Our platform is number four.

Anna: I know. I always wait here with my coffee. Where is your bike today?

Tom: I sold it. Now I have a small motorcycle and I like it a lot.

Anna: That is nice. Is it fast?

Tom: It is fast, but the city has too many cars. Every vehicle moves slowly in the morning.

Anna: True. That is why I take the train. My office is only ten minutes from the station.

Tom: How far is your home from here?

Anna: About one kilometer. I walk every day and I feel good.

Tom: Walking gives you energy for the whole day. I should try it too.

Anna: You should. Look, the train is coming now.

Tom: There are many people today. Every passenger has a big bag.

Anna: It is holiday time. Some of them take a plane later.

Tom: My sister works for an airline, and she is very busy this week.

Anna: Poor her. Does she check the bags too?

Tom: Sometimes. She checks the weight of every bag at the desk.

Anna: My bag is small, so that is never a problem for me.

Tom: Mine is small too. Let's find two seats.

Anna: The old railroad here is more than a hundred years old.

Tom: Really? My grandfather worked on it.

Anna: That is a lovely story. Do you take the subway after this?

Tom: Yes, one stop under the city. Then I am at work.

Try our 6-step method for free and make these words stick.

Listen to this episode online: https://course.interactivelessons.nl/local/podcast/episode.php?id=27497

Start this course for free: https://course.interactivelessons.nl/mod/quiz/view.php?id=1884