A Quiet Morning Drive (A2 · English A2)

Tekst / Transcript

Anna: Good morning, Tom. Are you ready for the trip?

Tom: Yes, I am. But first I want to check the car.

Anna: That is a good idea. The rain is very strong today.

Tom: The lights work, and the tyres are fine.

Anna: Good. I am always careful on wet roads.

Tom: Me too. My brother had a small accident here last year.

Anna: Oh no. Is he okay now?

Tom: He is fine. The doctors gave him good care for two days.

Anna: I am happy to hear that. Please open the map.

Tom: The map is on my phone. What is the distance to the lake?

Anna: It is about sixty kilometres. We need one hour.

Tom: Then we have time. I never like a high speed.

Anna: Yes, slow is better. Look at that big sign.

Tom: It shows the direction to the old bridge.

Anna: We do not go there. We turn left after the shop.

Tom: Okay. I drive carefully because the road is narrow.

Anna: Thank you. Now I feel calm.

Tom: Can you read the numbers on the sign correctly?

Anna: Yes, it says forty. That is our speed now.

Tom: Good. Please open my bag on the back seat.

Anna: There is a strange instrument inside it. What is this?

Tom: It is my old guitar. I play it at the lake.

Anna: Wonderful. Then this is a very nice day.
