A Bag for the Museum Trip (A2 · English A2)

Tekst / Transcript

Anna: Good morning, Tom. Are you ready for the trip?

Tom: Almost. I am packing my bag now. I only need one more item.

Anna: What is it? Your camera?

Tom: Yes, my camera. I want photos of the national museum.

Anna: That is a good plan. The building is very old and beautiful.

Tom: Is the ticket included in the school price?

Anna: Yes, it is. We pay nothing at the door.

Tom: Great. Do we take the bus at eight?

Anna: The bus is often late. We can walk instead.

Tom: Walking is fine for me. It is only two kilometres.

Anna: My sister says the walk is impossible, but that is not true.

Tom: She always says that. She is a little lazy.

Anna: Yes, she stays in bed until noon on Saturday.

Tom: What do we see inside the museum?

Anna: Many old things, including coins, maps and clothes.

Tom: I like the old maps very much.

Anna: The guide talks about human life a thousand years ago.

Tom: That sounds interesting. Do we need lunch?

Anna: Yes, bring a sandwich. The café is very expensive.

Tom: Rain is likely today, so I take my umbrella too.

Anna: Good idea. See you at the school gate.

Tom: See you soon, Anna.
