At the Hotel Desk (A2 · English A2)

Tekst / Transcript

Nora: Good morning, Sam. Are you the owner of this hotel?

Sam: No, I only work here. I stand at the reception every morning.

Nora: I see. Your hotel looks very nice and clean.

Sam: Thank you. Many people say that. Do you need a room?

Nora: Yes, please. I need a small room for two nights.

Sam: Of course. Can I see your name here, please?

Nora: Here it is. My name is Nora Kaya.

Sam: Good. You receive your key now. Room twelve.

Nora: Thank you. Is breakfast free in the morning?

Sam: Yes, it is free. The service starts at seven.

Nora: That is early. I usually wake up at eight.

Sam: No problem. Breakfast stays open until ten.

Nora: Perfect. Is the room quiet?

Sam: Yes, it is quiet. We reduce the noise with new windows.

Nora: That is good news. I sleep badly in loud rooms.

Sam: I understand. I am a regular guest in hotels too.

Nora: Do you know a cheap shop near here?

Sam: Yes, the shop next door has a big sale this week.

Nora: Nice. I want to buy a jacket and a hat.

Sam: Then I refer you to that shop. It is very cheap.

Nora: Thank you very much. You are kind.

Sam: One more thing. Please do not record music in the hall.

Nora: I never do that. I only take photos.

Sam: Then everything is fine. Enjoy your stay, Nora.

Nora: Thank you, Sam. See you at breakfast.

Try our 6-step method for free and make these words stick.

Listen to this episode online: https://course.interactivelessons.nl/local/podcast/episode.php?id=27583

Start this course for free: https://course.interactivelessons.nl/mod/quiz/view.php?id=1890