Tickets and Fresh Bread (A2 · English A2)

Tekst / Transcript

Mia: Hi, Leo! Come in and take a seat near the window.

Leo: Thank you. Your kitchen smells very good.

Mia: I buy fresh bread every morning. Do you want some?

Leo: Yes, please. Bread and tea are perfect for me.

Mia: So, what are your plans for the future?

Leo: I want to travel. I like foreign countries and new food.

Mia: That sounds like real fun.

Leo: My class starts the following week, so I go in June.

Mia: Are you free in June?

Leo: Yes, I have no work in June and July.

Mia: Lucky you. I only get two weeks.

Leo: I need further information about cheap tickets.

Mia: My sister works at a travel office. She helps you.

Leo: That is great news.

Mia: Fortunately she is home today. We can call her now.

Leo: Perfect. But I never write formal emails well.

Mia: Do not worry. You just talk to her on the phone.

Leo: Good. I always look forward to a new trip.

Mia: Me too. Please send me photos.

Leo: Of course. I call you before my flight.

Mia: Thank you. Now eat your bread!

Try our 6-step method for free and make these words stick.

Listen to this episode online: https://course.interactivelessons.nl/local/podcast/episode.php?id=27612

Start this course for free: https://course.interactivelessons.nl/mod/quiz/view.php?id=1892