The School Newspaper Meeting (A2 · English A2)

Tekst / Transcript

Mia: Hi Ben. Are you busy this afternoon?

Ben: Not really. Why do you ask?

Mia: Our school wants to publish a small newspaper. I need help with it.

Ben: That sounds nice. What is the purpose of this newspaper?

Mia: We want to tell students about clubs and sport. It is simple news for everybody.

Ben: Good idea. Who writes the first page?

Mia: I write the introduction. It is short and it says hello to the readers.

Ben: And after that?

Mia: Then we have a long column about our new music club. Anna writes it every week.

Ben: Can I write about the football team? I know the players well.

Mia: Yes, of course. You can be our sport reporter.

Ben: Great. I promise to finish my text before Friday.

Mia: Thank you. I also have one small question for you.

Ben: Please ask me.

Mia: How do you pronounce the name of the new coach? It looks difficult.

Ben: It is not hard. You say it slowly, and it sounds like "Kovacs".

Mia: Thank you for the explanation. Now I feel better.

Ben: No problem. Is the newspaper only for our class?

Mia: No, it is public. Parents and teachers can read it too.

Ben: Then we need good photos.

Mia: Yes, but we must protect the small children. We never write their family names.

Ben: That is a fair rule. I like this plan very much.

Try our 6-step method for free and make these words stick.

Listen to this episode online: https://course.interactivelessons.nl/local/podcast/episode.php?id=27644

Start this course for free: https://course.interactivelessons.nl/mod/quiz/view.php?id=1894