A Message on the Phone (A2 · English A2)

Tekst / Transcript

Lena: Tom, look at this message from my friend Sara.

Tom: What does she write?

Lena: She writes: "You are a real cat person." I do not understand this expression.

Tom: It is not bad. It means you love cats very much.

Lena: Oh! According to Sara, I have too many cat photos.

Tom: Then she is right. You post a photo every day.

Lena: That is true. But in this context, her words sound a little funny.

Tom: Words change with the situation. Here she is only friendly.

Lena: Okay. Now I want to write a nice comment under her photo.

Tom: Write something short and warm.

Lena: I suggest this: "Your new cat is beautiful."

Tom: Perfect. Simple sentences are always good.

Lena: My phone is old and slow. It does not allow me to send long messages.

Tom: Then buy a new one this month.

Lena: I want a new phone, but it is actually very expensive.

Tom: I have one suggestion for you. Look at the small shop near the station.

Lena: Is it cheap there?

Tom: Yes, and the people are kind.

Lena: Good. I send this message now, and I read the rest tomorrow.

Tom: You look tired tonight.

Lena: I am. I work all day and I want to rest now.

Tom: Sleep well. We can go to the shop on Saturday.

Try our 6-step method for free and make these words stick.

Listen to this episode online: https://course.interactivelessons.nl/local/podcast/episode.php?id=27645

Start this course for free: https://course.interactivelessons.nl/mod/quiz/view.php?id=1894