A New Bike in the Shop (A2 · English A2)

Tekst / Transcript

Tom: Hi Anna! Look at this bike in the window. It is beautiful.

Anna: Yes, it is nice. But is the size right for you? You are very tall.

Tom: I think it is fine. I sit on it for a moment yesterday. It feels good.

Anna: How much money do you have? A new bike is not cheap.

Tom: I save a small amount every month. Now I have almost enough.

Anna: That is good. My brother wants a bike too, but he has zero money.

Tom: Poor him. Money is always the problem.

Anna: True. This shop sells many things. Each unit costs about two hundred pounds.

Tom: Wow. A bike is a big thing for me. It is my most important possession.

Anna: I understand. My old camera is the same for me.

Tom: I am a little bit afraid. Maybe my parents say no.

Anna: Do you need their permission for this?

Tom: Yes, I am only fifteen. I ask them tonight.

Anna: There is a good possibility that they say yes.

Tom: I hope so. I have one more small request for you.

Anna: Tell me. What do you want?

Tom: Please come with me to the shop on Saturday.

Anna: Of course I come. Two heads are better than one.

Tom: Thank you! Your response makes me happy.

Anna: And remember, this bike is not a billion pounds. It is only a bike!

Tom: You are funny. See you on Saturday!
