Shopping for the Party (A2 · English A2)

Tekst / Transcript

Mia: Hello Ben. Are you ready for the party tonight?

Ben: Almost. I need food and drinks. Can you help me?

Mia: Sure. How many people come to your house?

Ben: About twelve. So we need a big quantity of bread and cheese.

Mia: Okay. This shop is close and cheap.

Ben: But the quality here is not very good. The bread is old.

Mia: Then we go to the market. It is a nice alternative.

Ben: Good idea. The market provides fresh fruit every morning.

Mia: Yes, and the fruit is really beautiful there.

Ben: My sister says the market is expensive.

Mia: It is a bit expensive, but there is one big benefit. Everything is fresh.

Ben: True. I pay more, but I am happy.

Mia: Are you able to carry all the bags?

Ben: I take half of them, and you take the rest.

Mia: That is fair. I don't refuse, of course.

Ben: Thank you. We also need juice for the children.

Mia: Buy less juice this time. Last time we had too much.

Ben: You are right. Two big bottles are enough.

Mia: We need at least one cake too.

Ben: My mother makes a chocolate cake for us.

Mia: Perfect! Tell her thank you from me.

Ben: I write her a message now. She always responds very fast.

Mia: Great. Let's go to the market now.
