A Sunday at the Gallery (A2 · English A2)

Tekst / Transcript

Mia: Good morning, Ben. Do you want to come with me today?

Ben: Yes, where do we go? The weather is nice and warm.

Mia: There is a new art gallery near the station. It is free on Sunday.

Ben: Great. I like art. I always look at pictures for a long time.

Mia: They show one image of the old harbour. It is very big and blue.

Ben: I want to see that. Do they have photos too?

Mia: Yes, one photograph shows my grandmother's street in 1960.

Ben: That sounds interesting. My grandmother lives near there.

Mia: There is also a small drawing of a horse in black pencil.

Ben: I like pencil work. It is simple but beautiful.

Mia: Wait, I need my ticket. It is in my pocket.

Ben: Good. Do not lose it. Mine is in my bag.

Mia: The shop sells cards and one nice poster of the harbour picture.

Ben: Maybe I buy it for my room. My walls are empty.

Mia: You can pick a small gift for your sister too.

Ben: Good idea. She likes cats and flowers.

Mia: They sell a little green plant in a pot for two euros.

Ben: Perfect. She puts it on her window.

Mia: But the pot is plastic, not clay. It is very light.

Ben: That is fine. It does not break.

Mia: After the visit we can eat cake and listen to pop music in the café.

Ben: Yes! And the café gives a small prize to lucky visitors.

Mia: Really? Maybe today we are lucky.

Try our 6-step method for free and make these words stick.

Listen to this episode online: https://course.interactivelessons.nl/local/podcast/episode.php?id=27703

Start this course for free: https://course.interactivelessons.nl/mod/quiz/view.php?id=1898