Lost Bags at the Station (A2 · English A2)

Tekst / Transcript

Sofia: Daniel, look at these two bags near the door.

Daniel: Whose bags are they? Nobody is sitting here.

Sofia: I don't know. The black one is not mine, my bag is red.

Daniel: And the small grey one is not yours either. I only have my backpack.

Sofia: Maybe a family left them for a minute.

Daniel: The station is very busy today. People run to every train.

Sofia: Wait, there is a man over there. He is looking around.

Daniel: I think the black bag is his. He is pointing at it.

Sofia: Let's ask him. Excuse me, sir, is this bag yours?

Daniel: He is smiling. Yes, it is his.

Sofia: He says thank you. He left it for one second to buy a ticket.

Daniel: He should be more careful with his things.

Sofia: True, but the station is safe here. There is a camera.

Daniel: Look, the grey bag is moving by itself!

Sofia: Oh, there is a small dog inside. That is incredible!

Daniel: I have never seen a dog in a bag like that.

Sofia: Two girls are running back now. They forgot their dog.

Daniel: They look very worried.

Sofia: They are talking to themselves about the time of the train.

Daniel: Now they see us and the bag. They are happy.

Sofia: The little dog is jumping happily and it wants to play.

Daniel: Can you please hold my coffee? I want to take a photo.

Sofia: Here, take it. But be quick, our train comes in four minutes.

Daniel: Done. The dog looked straight at the camera.

Sofia: We helped two people in ten minutes. We can be proud of ourselves.

Daniel: Yes, and now I want to sit down.

Sofia: Come on, platform six is downstairs. I will carry my bag myself.

Daniel: Okay, but give me the small one, it is easier for me.

Try our 6-step method for free and make these words stick.

Listen to this episode online: https://course.interactivelessons.nl/local/podcast/episode.php?id=27787

Start this course for free: https://course.interactivelessons.nl/mod/quiz/view.php?id=1904