Waiting at the Station (A2 · English A2)

Tekst / Transcript

Emma: Hi, Sam! Are you also waiting here? I did not expect to see you this morning.

Sam: Hello, Emma! Yes, I am waiting for the train to the city. It is late again.

Emma: That is very typical for this station. It is late almost every Monday.

Sam: You are right. I always bring a book, so I never get bored. What about you? Where are you going today?

Emma: I am going to my sister's house. She has a new baby, and I bought a small present.

Sam: That is nice. What did you buy? Something for the baby?

Emma: Yes, a soft toy with big ears. It is a little brown bear.

Sam: Babies love those. My son had one too. He carried it everywhere.

Emma: Oh, look. Somebody left food and papers on the seat over there.

Sam: People are not careful. I will put it in the trash next to the door.

Emma: Thank you. Now the seat is clean and we can sit down.

Sam: Careful, don't touch the seat. It looks a bit wet from the rain.

Emma: Good idea. I will stand and watch the track instead. I want to see the train arrive.

Sam: Please stay behind the yellow line. My mother always told me that when I was little.

Emma: Don't worry, I know the rules. Look, I can see a light now.

Sam: Yes! The train is coming toward us. Finally, only ten minutes late.

Emma: Let's go to the front. There are usually more free seats there.

Sam: Good plan. Can you help me with my bag? I want to put it on the top shelf.

Emma: Of course. It is not heavy at all. Sit by the window, and I will sit next to you.

Sam: Perfect. We can talk about your sister and the baby for the whole trip.

Emma: And then we can have coffee in the city, if you have time.

Try our 6-step method for free and make these words stick.

Listen to this episode online: https://course.interactivelessons.nl/local/podcast/episode.php?id=27870

Start this course for free: https://course.interactivelessons.nl/mod/quiz/view.php?id=1910